

I am terribly upset with the dangerous condition of our media. We are finally at a key decision point we saw coming for some time. Will corporate media conglomerates be permitted to use our public air waves to pursue their political goals? Are we losing one of our most carefully protected resources?

PLEASE invest in careful policy to keep our air waves open and free and truly public.